INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGY

The Chinabank Dollar Fixed Income Fund intends to achieve a steady stream of income by investing in a diversified portfolio of high-grade marketable securities comprised mainly of Philippine sovereign bonds as well as US treasury bonds of varying tenors with a weighted average portfolio modified duration of not more than ten (10) years. The Fund aims to outperform its benchmark which is the Bloomberg EM USD Sovereign-Philippine Total Return Index.

CLIENT SUITABILITY

A client profiling process shall be performed prior to participating in the Fund to guide the prospective investor if the Fund is suited to his/her investment objectives and risk tolerance. Before deciding to invest, clients are advised to read the Declaration of Trust, a copy of which is available at the Trustee's principal office.

The Chinabank Dollar Fixed Income Fund is suitable only for investors who:

- have a moderate risk appetite;
- are willing to assume a certain level of risk in consideration for higher returns; and
- have an investment horizon of at least five (5) years.

KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

The client should not invest in this Fund if the client does not understand or is not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

- Interest Rate Risk. This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in interest rates. The purchase and sale of a debt instrument may result in profit or loss because the value of a debt instrument changes inversely with prevailing interest rates.
- Market/Price Risk. This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in the market price of securities. It is the exposure to the uncertain market value of a portfolio due to price fluctuations.
- Liquidity Risk. This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to the inability to sell or convert assets into cash immediately or in instances where conversion to cash is possible but at a loss. These may be caused by different reasons such as trading in securities with small or few outstanding issues, absence of buyers, limited buy/sell activity or underdeveloped capital market.
- Credit/Default Risk. This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to a borrower's failure to pay principal and/or interest in a timely manner on instruments such as bonds, loans or other forms of security which the borrower issued. It also includes risk on a counterparty (a party the Trustee trades with) defaulting on a contract to deliver its obligation either in cash or securities.
- Reinvestment Risk. This is the possibility for an investor to have lower returns or earnings when maturing funds or the interest earnings of funds are reinvested.
- Country Risk. This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses arising from investments in securities issued by/in foreign countries due to political, economic and social structures of such countries. There are risks in foreign investments due to the possible internal and external conflicts, currency devaluations, foreign ownership limitations and tax increases of the foreign country which are difficult to predict but must be taken into account when making such investments.

The Trustee only transacts with reputable counterparties and invests in debt securities issued by countries and prime corporate borrowers which have undergone a rigorous accreditation and evaluation process. Regulatory exposure limits as well as the Fund's average duration are monitored regularly to ensure that exposures are managed. The Fund also employs risk management measures to monitor significant declines in the Fund's NAVPU and alert the Trustee to review current strategies and take corrective action as necessary. Furthermore, the Fund undergoes an annual review to ensure that it is equipped to fund any redemption requirement in a timely manner and at a reasonable cost during times of financial stress.

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Oil prices rose in July as renewed U.S.-Iran hostilities raised concerns over disruptions to global oil supply. Brent climbed from around US$73 per barrel at the end of June to above US$100 per barrel in the third week of the month, before easing toward US$90 at month-end as the U.S. paused strikes and hopes for renewed negotiations returned.

U.S. Treasury yields rose across the curve during the month, with the move more pronounced at the long end. The 2-year Treasury yield increased by 12 basis points to 4.291%, while the 10-year and 30-year yields rose by 28 and 32 basis points to 4.743% and 5.251%, respectively. Economic data remained mixed. June nonfarm payrolls increased by 57,000, below the 113,000 consensus and 129,000 in the previous month. Meanwhile, Q2 2026 GDP growth came in at 1.5%, below the 2.0% consensus and slowing from 2.1% in the previous quarter. June PCE inflation showed some moderation, with headline PCE easing to 3.7% from 4.1% previously and core PCE declining to 3.3% from 3.4%, although both remained above the Fed's 2% inflation target. On the monetary policy front, the Federal Reserve kept its policy rate unchanged at 3.50%–3.75%, although 3 of the 12 voting members dissented in favor of a 25-basis-point hike.

Locally, Philippine sovereign dollar bonds also weakened during the month, with ROP yields rising by 21, 33, and 41 basis points for the 2-year, 10-year, and 30-year tenors, respectively, to 4.643%, 5.631%, and 6.153%. The BTr reported that the National Government's outstanding debt reached Php19.07 trillion as of end-June 2026, up 10.41% from a year earlier. Domestic debt accounted for 67.33% of total debt, while external debt made up the remaining 32.67%. The National Government deficit reached Php786.8 billion in 1H26, up 2.79% YoY but broadly in line with the Php788.2 billion program. Revenue collections reached Php2.39 trillion, essentially in line with the midyear program, while expenditures were also broadly on target. President Marcos Jr. held his fifth SONA, with highlights including tax relief measures and reforms aimed at reducing electricity costs. The proposed increase in the annual income tax exemption threshold from Php250,000 to Php350,000, along with the proposed exemption of micro and small enterprises from the minimum corporate income tax, could support household disposable income but may result in an estimated Php67 billion in foregone revenues. However, the government is looking at higher excise and health taxes, among other measures, to offset the revenue impact and limit the effect on the fiscal deficit. Meanwhile, June inflation eased to 6.4% from 6.8% in May and came in below the 6.6% market consensus, although core inflation rose to 4.4% from 4.1%.

Looking ahead, market sentiment is expected to remain sensitive to developments in the Middle East and U.S. monetary policy. Investors will closely monitor the upcoming Jackson Hole Economic Policy Symposium for further guidance on the Fed's policy outlook. Locally, investors will also focus on the upcoming July inflation and Q2 GDP data ahead of the BSP's next policy meeting, where a further 25bps hike remains a key expectation. In this environment, the Fund remains selective in its bond purchases, seeking to enhance portfolio yield while carefully managing duration risk.
