INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGY

The Chinabank Balanced Fund intends to achieve capital appreciation as well as a steady income stream by investing in a diversified portfolio of high-grade tradable fixed income securities issued by the Philippine government and local corporations and choice equity issues listed in the Philippine Stock Exchange (PSE). Up to 60% of the Fund may be invested in equity issues at any point in time while the balance shall be in fixed income securities with a weighted average portfolio modified duration of not more than five (5) years. The Fund aims to outperform its benchmark which is 60% Philippine Stock Exchange PSEI Total Return Index (PSEI TRI) + 40% Bloomberg Philippine Sovereign Bond Index 1 to 5 Year (BPBIL15 Index).

CLIENT SUITABILITY

A client profiling process shall be performed prior to participating in the Fund to guide the prospective investor if the Fund is suited to his/her investment objectives and risk tolerance. Before deciding to invest, clients are advised to read the Declaration of Trust, a copy of which is available at the Trustee's principal office.

The Chinabank Balanced Fund is suitable only for investors who:

- have an aggressive risk appetite;
- are willing to accept higher risks involving volatility of returns and possible erosion of principal in return for capital appreciation and potentially better long-term results; and,
- have an investment horizon of at least five (5) years.

KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

The client should not invest in this Fund if the client does not understand or is not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

- Interest Rate Risk. This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in interest rates. The purchase and sale of a debt instrument may result in profit or loss because the value of a debt instrument changes inversely with prevailing interest rates.
- Market/Price Risk. This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in the market price of securities. It is the exposure to the uncertain market value of a portfolio due to price fluctuations. Given that the Fund may be invested up to 60% in equity issues at any point in time, investors are deemed to be more exposed to this risk.
- Liquidity Risk. This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to the inability to sell or convert assets into cash immediately or in instances where conversion to cash is possible but at a loss. These may be caused by different reasons such as trading in securities with small or few outstanding issues, absence of buyers, limited buy/sell activity or underdeveloped capital market.
- Credit/Default Risk. This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to a borrower's failure to pay principal and/or interest in a timely manner on instruments such as bonds, loans or other forms of security which the borrower issued. It also includes risk on a counterparty (a party the Trustee trades with) defaulting on a contract to deliver its obligation either in cash or securities.
- Reinvestment Risk. This is the possibility for an investor to have lower returns or earnings when maturing funds or the interest earnings of funds are reinvested.

The Trustee only transacts with reputable counterparties and invests in debt securities issued by prime corporate borrowers which have undergone a rigorous accreditation and evaluation process. Internal and regulatory exposure limits as well as the Fund's average duration for its fixed-income investments are monitored regularly to ensure that exposures are managed. The Fund also employs risk management measures to monitor significant declines in the Fund's NAVPu and alert the Trustee to review current strategies and take corrective action as necessary. Furthermore, the Fund undergoes an annual review to ensure that it is equipped to fund any redemption requirement in a timely manner and at a reasonable cost during times of financial stress.

The PSEi TRI tracks the performance and income from dividend payments of the PSEi constituents by reinvesting cash back to the index. The PSEi is a composite index that tracks the performance of the top 30 publicly listed companies in the Philippines based on market capitalization and is computed using a free-float, market capitalization-weighted methodology. It includes a diversified range of companies from various sectors of the economy including financials, property, industrials, services and holdings firms, among others. This Index is not adjusted for tax by the Trustee and does not reflect deductions for fees and expenses. Additional information on PSEi TRI and/or its administrator is available on www.pse.com.ph/indices.

The BPHIL15 Index is a systematically designed, rules-based, market value-weighted index that measures the performance of fixed-rate and zero-coupon local currency securities that are publicly issued in the Philippines. It includes a diversified range of fixed income securities with different coupon rates, maturities of between 1 to 5 years, minimum par amounts of Php3.0Bn, and are traded in the Philippine market. This Index is adjusted for tax by the Trustee, but does not reflect deductions for fees and expenses. Additional information on BPHIL15 Index and/or its administrator can be found on Bloomberg, and be made available to investors upon request.

The benchmark provides a standard for evaluating the Fund's performance by helping investors/participants understand how the Fund is performing relative to the markets or asset classes the Fund represents. In the case of PSEi TRI, its characteristics, including its composition and the corresponding weights of its constituents, serve as reference point for the Fund's allocation and security selection profile. Meanwhile, in the case of BPHIL15 Index, its characteristics serve as reference point for the Fund's duration and credit positioning.

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market volatility eased in May. The VIX Index, which measures equity market volatility, declined to 19 after spiking as high as 60 last April, driven by developments on trade policies. Following the 90-day suspension of the U.S.'s reciprocal tariffs on major trading partners (excluding China) in April, the U.S. and China agreed to a temporary truce. As part of the deal, the U.S. reduced tariffs on Chinese goods from 145% to 30%, while China lowered its tariffs from 125% to 10%. Major equity indices saw gains as a result. The MSCI All Country World Index climbed by +5.51%, while the S&P 500 Index (SPX) added +6.15%. Similarly, the MOVE Index, which measures interest rate volatility, declined to 92 from as high as 139 the previous month. Unlike equities, however, bonds were sold off as Moody's downgraded the U.S. credit rating from Aaa to Aa1, citing concerns about the sustainability of the federal budget deficit. The passage of Trump's "One Big Beautiful Bill" in the House of Representatives, a package combining tax cuts and new spending initiatives, added to these concerns, contributing to the rise in U.S. yields.

In the local equities space, the Philippine Stock Exchange Index (PSEi) fell by -0.21% to close at 6,303.22. Sectoral performance was mixed, with Services (+10.02%) and Holding Firms (+0.09%) providing support, while Property (-4.74%), Financials (-2.83%), Mining and Oil (-0.86%), and Industrials (-0.62%) experienced declines. Leading index gainers included AGI (+36.27%), BLOOM (+22.58%), ICT (+20.52%), JGS (+20.12%), and GTCAP (+11.11%). On the other hand, CBC (-14.60%), ALI (-8.18%), GLO (-7.53%), TEL (-6.46%), and SMPH (-5.49%) were among the laggards. The average daily traded value increased to Php6.35 billion, surpassing the year-to-date average of Php5.59 billion, partly boosted by the month-end MSCI rebalancing. Within the MSCI Standard Index, ICT, BDO, and BPI saw weight reductions, while JFC was upweighted. BLOOM and WLCON were removed from the Small Cap Index, while AEV was added. URC, PLUS, and CNPF had their weights reduced, whereas RRHI's increased. Regarding RRHI, the Gokongwei Group reacquired 22.2% of the company's outstanding shares from GCH Investments Pte. Ltd. for Php15.77 billion. Excluding this transaction, foreign funds ended the month as net buyers, with inflows of Php1.31 billion.

In the local fixed-income space, yield movements were mixed. Yields on securities maturing in one year or less fell by an average of 13 bps, driven by expectations that the BSP may resume cutting policy rates as early as June. Macroeconomic data supported this expectation, including April inflation at 1.40% and Q1 GDP growth of 5.40%, slightly missing the 5.70% consensus. Meanwhile, the 1-year to 10-year segment saw more muted movements, with yields decreasing by an average of 3 bps. In contrast, long-end yields rose by 21 bps, reflecting movements in U.S. Treasuries. The Bureau of the Treasury (BTr) remained active during the month in the auction space. Early in the month, the BTr raised Php30 billion from the reissuance of the 7-year FXTN 10-69 at 6.081%, with a 2.4x bid-to-cover ratio. A subsequent dual-tranche auction awarded the 3-year FXTN 07-64 at 5.703% due to robust 4.3x demand, and the 20-year FXTN 20-27 was fully awarded at 6.486% with a more modest 1.1x bid-to-cover. The 10-year FXTN 10-73 was reissued at 6.226%, with the auction committee raising Php40 billion due to strong 3.7x demand. The final auction of the month, a reissuance of the 15-year FXTN 20-23, was awarded at 6.473%, although demand was soft, with Php19.8 billion raised versus a Php30 billion target.

Year to date, the PSEi is down by -2.87%. On a valuation basis, the index trades at 10.17x forward 2025 earnings, implying an earnings yield of 9.83%. Consensus 2025 earnings estimates have been revised to +8%, down from around +10% at the beginning of the year, following the modest Q1 index-weighted earnings growth of +3.53%. Meanwhile, the local yield curve continues to steepen, with the 2-year yield down 34 bps and the 10-year up 10 bps year to date. Expectations of further BSP rate cuts may continue to support bonds in the intermediate to medium-term segment. In contrast, longer-dated bonds could face ongoing headwinds due to supply risks and policy uncertainties. Given these developments, the Fund will maintain a selective approach to its equity positioning, carefully considering value and growth opportunities. At the same time, the Fund will remain opportunistic in its bond acquisitions to gradually enhance portfolio yield.
